Steps for Implementation:

1. Begin by asking the students what they know in regards to the history of Miami Beach. Log the information on the KWL chart on a SMART board or on paper as a graphic organizer whichever is more convenient.
2. Have the students view the prez- on Miami Beach History and discuss it as a group. The link to the prez- is: http://prezi.com/ry6betclmymv/present/?auth_key=o08q8rh&follow=yepn3kdr2wum&kw=present-ry6betclmymv&rc=ref-35096845 (must be watched on Google Chrome).
3. After watching the prez- add important details to the KWL chart accordingly.

4. Distribute Hamburger Handouts to the students. Tell them that they are going to write an informational writing about the history of Miami Beach, FL.
5. Have the students begin organizing their writing onto the Hamburger Handout. For middle school and high school students, their essay should be written in MLA or APA format depending on each school's criteria. More advance courses can assign students do a 3-6 page research paper.
6. Finally, as a home- learning activity each student will write an informational essay about "The History of Miami Beach ". The essay should include 1-2 visual aids.

Enrichment Activities: Students may do further research at home to add pictures to their writing.

ELL Strategies:

Use visual depictions of historical events in order to increase ELL students' mastery of related content. Have students create an illustrated geographic dictionary of key terms in English and their native language using a translation website such as: www.translation.com.

Remediation Strategies: Use visual depictions of historical events in order to increase students' mastery of related content. The use of graphic organizers and peer tutors can help students organize their ideas and create an outline for their essay. Essays may also be peer and teacher edited to remediate and assist students.
